Mt. Fengshan Temple Tourist Area is located on the bank of Pingqing Lake in the east of Shanwei City. It is surrounded by the seaside avenue leading to the city center and is located on the east island of Yuci. The Mt. Fengshan Temple built in the Nine Years of Ming Chongzhen (before 1636 AD), and later expanded during the Qing Emperor Qianlong period. The incense has continued for centuries. The Mt. Fengshan Temple is not only a famous scenic spot in Shanwei City, but also a place where the people of eastern Guangdong and coastal fishermen worship the Mazu.

The Ancient City Wall of Chaozhou mainly refers to the Xiangqiao District of Chaozhou City. Many historical buildings here have been integrated into modern city life. To experience the unique charm of this ancient city, you can go to Paifang Street and taste traditional food, go to Kaiyuan Temple, Xufu MaFu, and Huang Jilue Ancestral Hall to admire ancient architecture and amazing wood carvings, or take a stroll along the Han River and look at the ancient city walls, the city gate, and the famous Guangji Bridge. If you want to enjoy a nice cup of Chaozhou Gongfu tea, enjoy it by West Lake, where you can take a boat tour.

This is a tour of Guangzhou Tram Sightseeing Line in Guangzhou China. Have you ever taken a tram in Guangzhou? It's the first Tram in Guangzhou China, hope you enjoy this 4K tour in China. Guangzhou Tram (Young Tram) is a modern tram system serving Guangzhou City, Guangdong Province, China. Its first line was opened on December 31, 2014, making it the first city in Guangdong Province to open modern trams.
