Kunming Tulip Appreciation Tour! Next to Dianchi Lake, Laoyu River Wetland Park is home to a sea of 1 million tulip flowers, offering a picturesque and beautiful scenery. If you love flower viewing, you definitely shouldn't miss this. After visiting the Green Lake Park in the city center and admiring the beautiful scenery of 200,000 tulips, I heard that Laoyu River Wetland Park by Dianchi Lake is also in full bloom with 1 million tulips. So, an impromptu Laoyu River flower viewing trip began.

Yuanyang is mainly terraced landscape, and is the core area of Honghe Hani Rice Terraces. The Yuanyang Hani Rice Terraces mainly include three major scenic spots, Bada Rice Terraces, Laohuzui Rice Terraces and Duoyishu Rice Terraces. A vast expanse of rice terraces form a magical and magnificent landscape in the shadow of vast forests and under the cover of boundless sea of clouds.

Aichun Village, to marvel at the blue rice terrace. The blue color is not from the water but reflects the expansive sky. From a high observation deck, soak in the picturesque scene of azure skies, white clouds above, and layered blue rice terraces on the ground, with traditional Hani houses peeking through the trees. (Travel tip: Visit Aichun Village between 09:00-10:00 for the optimal time to appreciate the blue rice terrace.)

The top reason to come to Luoping is for the Golden Rapeseed Flowers Sea which is blooming prosperously on the land of Luoping in spring usually falling in the late January to the early April every year. Many typical Karst hills dotted on the flat farmland and when the green land is turning into the golden flowers sea, Luoping has become "the Largest Natural Garden in the World". Many travelers would like to spend around 2 days fully immersing into a sea of canola flowers and shooting many amazing pictures!

Jiaozi Snow Mountain (Sedan Chair Snow Mountain) reaching 4,227 meters with the highest peak like a bridal sedan chair enjoys the typical mountain glacier landscape in central Yunnan and is a top popular snow resort for locals and visitors to enjoy its famous snow mountain and icefall, sea of azalea flowers, alpine lakes, sea of clouds, sunrise and light of Buddha. You will enjoy a classic discovery of Jiaozi Snow Mountain for around 4 hours.
