Located in the southwest of Tujia-miao Autonomous Prefecture of Xiangxi in Hunan province, Fenghuang Ancient Town or Phoenix Ancient Town is reputed as “the most beautiful town in China” and “Town in a Picture”. Built in 1704, this old town was given the title of the “National AAAA Tourist Attraction” for its charming scenery of multiple ancient sites of towers, brides, streets, and other buildings as well as the rich culture of Miao, Tujia and other 26 minority ethnic groups.

Tianmen Mountain, by Zhangjiajie city, in central China's Hunan Province, has been called “one of the most beautiful mountains in the world” by many travelers who have been there. The stunning views including 'Heaven's Door' and the 99 Bends, vertical cliffs, the thrilling cliff-hanging walkway and glass skywalk, and the world's longest cable car ride, make it unquestionably one of the best mountains to visit in China. Come, climb the 'Stairway to Heaven'!

Bailong Elevator is the highest and fastest outdoor elevator in the world with 3 cars clinging onto a mountainside in Zhangjiajie. It sits inside Zhangjiajie National Forest Park in Wulingyuan Scenic Area in China's Hunan Province, and rides up 326 meters (or 1,070 feet) high in under 2 minutes. It's definitely a tough one for those with a fear of heights! One of its Chinese names means 'hundred dragons sky ladder', because (with imagination) it looks like a giant dragon soaring up to the sky.

Furong Ancient Town is more than 2000 years old and home to the Tujia minority people. Located in the Hunan Province between the Avatar Mountains in Zhangjiajie and the Ancient Phoenix Village of Fenghuang, Furong is one of those villages in China that keeps the charm of older times and remains a largely unknown treasure. Once you get a glimpse of the waterfalls and beautiful mountain scenery you'll wonder why it's not more popular!

Tujia Folk Customs Park is a cultural site in Yongding District, Zhangjiajie City, showcasing traditional Tujia architecture and customs. The park offers replicas of Tujia houses and artifacts inside the Jiuchongtian Hereditary Hall. It is said to be linked with the legend of Yang Warriors from the Northern Song Dynasty. Visitors can enjoy folk performances and learn about local customs through guided tours, including a traditional "crying wedding" show.
